VENTURA SUPERIOR COURT NAMES EMPLOYEE OF THE YEAR

The Ventura Superior Court has named Mari Soto as its Employee of the Year. The announcement was made at the court's Annual Meeting on February 7, 2002.

Ms. Soto was described by Executive Officer Michael Planet as extremely skilled and always pleasant to work with. A relatively new member of the court staff, she started in the Records and Exhibits unit as a Court Services Assistant I and is currently a Court Processing Assistant III assigned to the Civil and Small Claims unit. She is a past recipient of the "You Make a Difference in Records (UMADR)" award and has a bilingual certification from the court.

The employee of the year is chosen from among the court's 12 employees of the month. Selection for this honor is based on job performance and service to the court. Other eligible employees of the month were Mark Brandl, Linda Espinoza, Linda Evans, Tracy Journet, Sally Lineback, Maria Moncayo, Richard Padilla, Lolita Pasion, Linda Reynolds, Edith Rodriguez and Rachel Sales.
